SCOUTS PLAN EXPOSITION FOR FEB. 8

Scouts and Cubs of the Albany district met at the Lloyd Hogan home, 1558 Sonoma Avenue, Thursday evening, January 2, to plan a giant exposition of Scouting and Cubbing skills to be held Saturday afternoon, February 8, in Marin school auditorium. The program will be held as a climax to Scout Week.

Hogan, chairman of the camping and activities of the district, said "This is the anniversary of Scouting and we are going to show the people of Albany just what Scouting has done for their boys and the community."

There will be 300 boys participating in the exhibition which is to cover all phases of Scouting and Cubbing. Free admission tickets will be distributed to every residence by Scouts and Cubs. Tickets may also be secured by calling Mason Layton, Albany district chairman, Boy Scouts of America, Landscape 5-0141.

In addition to the program, details of which are not yet complete, there will be exhibits by troops and packs for which awards will be made. Those participating, and their sponsors are Troop 12, American Legion Post 292; 42, Marin Dads Club; 45, Albany High School Dads; 46, Community Methodist Church; 54, Codornices Village Community Church; 212, Fraternal Order of Eagles; Packs 3, Marin Dads Club; 50, American Legion Post 292; 7, Cornell P-T-A. and Ship 49, sponsored by Albany Lions Club.

Joe Villa Named To Head Albany March of Dimes

Joseph Villa, Albany business man, has been named to head the March of Dimes for Infantile Paralysis to be held here January 15-30.

Villa received his appointment this week from John F. Hassler, Oakland city manager and chairman of the Alameda County March of Dimes.

In making the appointment, Hassler hailed Villa for his leadership in the 1946 March of Dimes, and called on him to "lead generous Albany citizens in what we are confident will be the most successful polio fund appeal in our nation's history."

"The drive cannot fail when our people realize that the nation has just suffered the worst epidemic of polio since 1916, and that the funds with which to fight the dread disease have been exhausted," Hassler said.

Villa, now organizing committees to aid in the local campaign, was one of more than 300 March of Dimes leaders who attended a luncheon in San Francisco on Monday to hear Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and a former law partner of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, deliver a campaign keynote address.

Hundreds of March of Dimes coin collection boxes are now being prepared for distribution to stores, business firms, schools, and public meeting places, Villa reported in discussing plans for the two-week campaign.

Dads' Club To Meet With Marin P-T.A. In Panel Discussion

"Understanding Makes Good Parents" will be the topic discussed at the first joint meeting of the Marin Parent-Teacher Association and the Marin Dads' Club on Tuesday evening, January 14, at 8 p.m.

A symposium panel, emphasizing the need for Parent-Education programs will be the feature of the evening.

A vocal sextet from the "Mother's Singers" group of the Berkeley-Albany Council will present the musical program.

This meeting will feature the Parent Education and Publicity committees.

All members and their friends are invited to join in the social hour following the meeting. Clever decorations have been prepared for the occasion by Mrs. Edgar Whitehead and her committee.

Plans are already being made for a rummage sale to be held on January 29 by the Marin Parent-Teacher Association.

All members are asked to clean out their closets and send to Marin School any usable clothing for men, women, or children, shoes, household articles, books, toys, any miscellaneous items that have become "white elephants" or dust catchers.

The articles may be sent to school with the children or left at the school when doing the daily marketing. All items will be appreciated.

Betty Ann Klein Wed at Church

Soft candle light set the scene as E. Thomas Aldington stepped to the altar of the Albany Community Church to claim his lovely bride, Betty Ann Klein. James A. Klein, brother of the bride, and Evelyn Knoen were attendants to the couple in the ceremony presided over by Rev. John W. Winbley.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Klein, 636 Stannage Ave., has been employed at Western Regional Research Laboratory for the past four years. The Kleins have resided in Albany for many years.

After a honeymoon at Strawberry Lodge, in the Sierras, the couple will fly to Pennsylvania where Addington will take up his studies at Lafayette College. Tom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Addington, live in Fords, N. J.

Chamber of Commerce Urges Cooperation

California will be host to thousands of tourists this year and what they see of the homes of Californians will to a large measure influence their opinions of the state. If each citizen would take stock of his property, see how it may be improved and set about to make these improvements, the results would be both surprising and satisfying.

Paint and other materials needed to put your home back to something like its pre-war condition are still hard to get but a check of the stock available in Albany stores will prove that your local merchants are always alert to supply you with many hard-to-get items.

This year of 1947 will also bring to many persons the realization that the so-called "easy money" accompanying the war years is a thing of the past. The value of the dollar must be carefully studied now and means will have to be devised to make each dollar go farther.

The value of shopping with local merchants becomes quickly evident in a study of means to stretch dollars by saving pennies. Consider the problem of transportation involved in shopping at stores distant from your home. If you drive a car the cost of gasoline, pennies for parking, wear and tear on the automobile and many more minor items all combine to lower the purchasing power of the dollar for which you could have received full value at your local stores.

In bringing to your attention the advantages of shopping with local merchants the Albany Chamber of Commerce points out that with co-operation between the residents and business men of this city, a general feeling of civic pride and local prosperity for all will be engendered.

County School Head To Speak Before Education Groups

Vaughn Seidel, Alameda County superintendent of schools, will address an assembled group of the Berkeley-Albany Parent-Teachers Association and Youth Agencies representatives at 9:30 a.m. January 15 at the Whittier University Elementary School. He will explain character education by various youth agencies in schools throughout the county.

The January meeting of the Berkeley-Albany P-T-A. is scheduled for the sixth at 9:45 a.m. at the Administration Building, 1414 Walnut, with Mrs. Violet Richardson-Ward presiding.

According to a release by Mrs. J. A. Hilliard, membership chairman, the Berkeley-Albany P-T-A. has at present a membership of 6,065, an increase of 565 over last year. Twenty units are represented, 16 in Berkeley and 4 in Albany.

Albany Resident Found Dead In Upholstery Shop

Frank B. Klein, 46, 611 Kains Ave., was found dead in his San Pablo Upholstery shop Wednesday morning.

He is survived by his wife, Faye Klein, a son, John Kenneth Klein, and three daughters, Mrs. Corrine M. Hittle, Betty Faye and Beverly Klein.

Mr. Klein was a member of Richmond Lodge No. 1251, B.P.O. Elks, and the El Cerrito City Club. Services to be held in the Drawing Room Chapel of Ellis-Olson Mortuary are pending.

Big steelhead are now coming into the Smith River, Del Norte County.

Folk Dance Classes Schedule Changed

The desire of folk dancers in the beginning and intermediate courses for a two-hour instead of an hour and a half class, has led to a new schedule of classes, effective Monday, January 13th. This is a definite change from the hours announced for the current quarter in the beginning and intermediate classes, in recent press releases. All three classes will continue to be taught by David Boyce.

The revised schedule will be as follows:

Beginners' class, Monday evenings, 8 to 10, Cornell auditorium. Intermediate class, Tuesday evenings, 8 to 10, Cornell auditorium. Advanced class, Wednesday evenings, 8 to 10, Marin auditorium.

The advanced folk dancing class is now filled. Those who wish to enroll in it should submit their names to Mr. Boyce, instructor, so he may call them from a waiting list upon the opening of vacancies in the enrollment. Residents of Albany will have preference on the waiting list over those from outside of Albany.

The intermediate class is arranged for those who were enrolled in the beginning class at Cornell last quarter or those who have had the equivalent of this instruction. Those who were in the beginner's class last quarter will not be permitted to enroll in the advanced class at this time.

Co-presidents of the student leaders are Richard Johnson and Evelyn Platner. Secretary is Lynn Pawson.

A Red Cross nutrition class will start at the Berkeley Chapter House, 2116 Allston Way on January 29, according to Mrs. Frank Freeman, chairman of nutrition for the local chapter. The class will be held weekly from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, continuing for six weeks.

Dr. Flora Rose, nationally recognized authority on nutrition and for many years head of the Home Economics Department at Cornell University, will conduct the class.

H. S. GROUP ENTERTAINS LIONS CLUB

"The Slick Cheiks," talented vocal group from Castlemont High School, Oakland, entertained the Albany Lions Club last night during their regular weekly meeting held at Jim's Coffee Shop. Tenor and soprano solos by members of the group, under the direction of Alice M. Eggers, music director at Castlemont, a piano duet, and impersonations were other features of the program.

An educational film, "Clear to the Top" brought roars of enthusiastic approval from Lions who saw a showing of the Hollywood produced feature at last week's Thursday night meeting. Produced by the Calvert Distillers Corp., the film is a frank pointed plea for those who drink to do so "moderately and wisely."

E. W. Stryker, vice president and program chairman for the Lions Club, revealed that Monday, January 13, Albany's president, Cliff Lockhart, will meet with the El Cerrito Lions to present the speaker of the evening, H. C. Van Pelt. Van Pelt is from the Special Agents' Office of the F.B.I. in San Francisco. As an added surprise at the joint meeting, John Carrion will present "A Tailtwister."

Although the short story will not be the only field covered, considerable attention will be devoted to the history of this type of writing, the elements of the short story and the various types of short stories. Practical suggestions will be offered by the teacher on methods of preparing creative writing for publication, the types of stories desired by the various magazines and other related subjects.

On Monday and Wednesday evenings a class in word analysis and vocabulary building is given by Mr. Fay Donaldson. This course presents a study of the origins and roots of words, the building of a vocabulary from these basic groups and their practical application in every day conversation and writing. Interesting phases of history that revolve about the historical growth of the English vocabulary, is also made a part of the course.

Two courses, one in public speaking and one in corrective English, are under the leadership of Wallace McPhee. The public speaking class is given on Tuesday evenings and corrective English on Thursday evenings. The public speaking course covers the techniques used in effective conversation and public speaking. The class in corrective English devotes attention to the study of English grammar and its application to effective writing and speaking. Particular emphasis is laid on the study of words.

NO ONE NEED WORRY ABOUT FUNERAL BILLS

Everyone should have a plan prepared for all the major eventualities of life.

There is a Plan that everyone should look into. It provides a method of setting down in advance just what funeral arrangements shall be carried out. It also provides immediate cash to cover funeral costs. This means that those who remain will not be burdened with the ordeal of arrangements at the time of sorrow, and it keeps savings and insurance funds intact.

In the interest of better service, we will be pleased to tell you how you may obtain this protection. For information
